Bishop Ha from Hong Kong celebrates Mass at 4.00pm on behalf of the Ethnic Chaplaincy.

Anyone is welcome to attend, although the majority will be travelling to the event from elsewhere in the country and the service will be in Cantonese.

Sunday 28th. Intercultural Mass at St Anne's, usual time of 11.45. This will be something organised from within ourselves to give expression to the many cultural backgrounds found within our congregation.

Some traditional songs will be sung and prayers said in different languages— volunteers please!

This can be an opportunity to share/appreciate our cultural differences in the hope that we can be more sensitive to the spiritual and pastoral needs of those around us.

Anyone is welcome to attend— the event has not been advertised outside of the church.

A sharing of foods from different traditions will follow in the Hall after the Mass.

Wearing of traditional costumes is encouraged but not compulsory— come just as you are!
