Anawim – Birmingham's Centre for Women's Charity Shop celebrates exciting move to Moseley, Anawim – Birmingham's Centre for Women is a leading advocate for women, providing support services to women experiencing multiple and complex challenges. They are proud to announce they will be moving their current charity shop on Edward Street, Balsall Heath, to a brand-new location on Moseley high street. The new location will help Anawim to reach more people in the community by not only selling donated clothes, household items, gifts and art work but also by providing local women with opportunities for valuable work experience and training within this social enterprise.

The shop will be holding an opening event 9am – 4pm on Saturday 27 April at the new address 214-218 Alcester Road, Moseley, Birmingham. Opening times will then be Tuesday to Saturday 9am – 5pm. Proceeds from sales will go directly to funding Anawim's vital services for women, providing women with education, courses, counselling and resources to break the cycles of poverty, abuse and poor mental health.

Support a meaningful cause by buying sustainably, supporting women and feeling amazing!

The International Day of Prayer for Eastern Christians is celebrated annually on the Sixth Sunday of Easter. It offers an opportunity for Eastern and Western Christians to come together to pray for peace in the world – especially in the Middle East.

The charity Fellowship and Aid to the Christians of the East (FACE) in partnership with the Dicastery for Oriental Churches helps organise this annual day of prayer, with the participation of Christians from all over Europe, the Middle East, the Horn of Africa and India.

Eastern and Western Christians are encouraged to take this opportunity during the season of Easter to come together in prayer. The occasion unites the Roman Catholic Church in Europe and the Eastern Catholic Churches in union with the Pope.
